

STIFLING THE FLU VIRUS 9

AMAZING GRACE 13

1997 global sales of feed additives = $5 billion

FEED ADDITIVES 15

IT'S A WRAP 26

NEWS OF THE WEEK

FUEL CELL CATALYST: 6

Combinatorial approach yields unexpected but better catalyst for methanol oxidation reaction.

CHARGE TRANSFER: 7

There's more of it in protein/water systems than expected.

SUPERFUND SUIT: 7

Parent companies not responsible for subsidiaries' cleanup bills.

FEDERAL R&D FUNDING: 8

Fiscal 1999 is not shaping up as a year for large increases in research budgets.

YES TO BIOTECH: 8

Swiss voters overwhelmingly reject genetic research ban.

CHEMICAL ARMS TREATY: 9

Congress approves bill necessary to implement treaty in U.S. by veto-proof majority.

STIFLING THE FLU VIRUS: 9

Carbohydrate-polymer conjugate uses dual mechanism to block viral receptors.

BUSINESS

AMAZING GRACE: 13

Chairman and CEO Albert Costello has crafted a stable, focused specialty chemicals company.

FEED ADDITIVES: 15

Some producers expand their product range, others opt to specialize, but all see global demand growing.

ENVIRONMENT

AMPHIBIAN DECLINES: 20

Scientists explore reasons why amphibians are disappearing from isolated habitats.

COVER: Design by Phillip Payette, photo by David Hanson

GOVERNMENT

NSF REVIEW: 21

Committee says foundation's Chemistry Division is doing a good job.

GOVERNMENT INSIGHTS: 22

Despite claims that new EPA programs will benefit public health, there is little evidence that they will do so.

SCIENCE/TECHNOLOGY

COVER STORY

IT'S A WRAP: 26

Food-packaging technology shifts from the goal of passive protection to an active role in improving food quality.

CHEMISTRY AND CLIMATE: 34

Leermakers Symposium addresses atmospheric science.

AIC GOLD MEDAL: 34

American Institute of Chemists honors Texas A&M's F. Albert Cotton.

BOOKS

"THE ASCENT OF SCIENCE": 35

History of Western science contains some hidden gems and new insights.

MEETINGS

EDUCATION CONFERENCE: 39

Complete listing of papers to be given at 15th Biennial Conference on Education, Aug. 9-13.

THE DEPARTMENTS

3 EDITOR'S PAGE

4 LETTERS

CONCENTRATES

11 Business

19 Government

24 Science/Technology

33 NEW PRODUCTS

37 ACS COMMENT

38 ACS NEWS

56 NEWSSCRIPTS